

THE GREAT WALL - by Grace

This story is about my country, my family and me. I live in Australia now, but one year ago I lived in Chinese capital city Beijing. I love my country very much, because it is very beautiful. In Beijing there are many many beautiful places. The Great Wall and the When I was young I went with my father and mother to the Great Wall many many times. My father also told me the long history about The Great Wall. Two thousand year ago there was much fighting that was Chinese and Mongolian. Because the Mongolian people were very strong. They rode horses and used big swords or knives and also the Chinese people were very weak so they thought of a good idea. They made the Great Wall. The government caught many many strong boys and men to made it. And it is also many many boys and men died under the Great Wall. Because the Great Wall is the biggest. The Mongolian people lost the fighting. Today I have come to Australia and I want everybody to know about the Great Wall because it is so strong and beautiful.

3-LEVEL GUIDE A

In this exercise students first answer true or false individually. They are then put in pairs and told to present a single answer to the class. They are then put into fours and the process repeated. Then groups of eight students will discuss and compare and decide on a single answer to present to the class. They will give reasons why they think their answer is correct.
